

Section A: Editing

Line	Error	Answer	Error Type	Comments
1	✓			-Subject (matter) is the main thing a story refers to; usually a concrete thing and specific -a person or thing that is being discussed, described, or dealt with (Oxford University)
2	have	has	SVA
3	or	and	conjunction
4	on	in	preposition
5	but	though / although	conjunction	X: where / when (rel pron) https://blog.teacherprix.com/what-s-the-difference-between-but-although/ Although / though highlights a surprising result; used as subordinating conjunction But / whereas to show contrast
6	✓			can/could - grammatically correct; could highlights lower probability
7	that	this	pronoun	X: the (article; no change in error type) Backward reference
8	looking	looks	verb form
9	an	the	article
10	announces	announced	tense	